Average percentage of fulltime teachers with Ph.D./D.Sc./ D.Lit./DM/M Ch/DNB in super specialities /other PG degrees (like MD/ MS/ MDS etc.,) in Health Sciences (like MD/ MS/ MDS etc.,) for recognition as Ph.D guides as per the eligibility criteria stipulated by the Regulatory Councils /Affiliating Universities.

The HEI Response and Claim

The observation made by the DVV are noted.

The affiliating university's eligibility criteria for postgraduate guides and Ph.D. guides are different. Based on the eligibility criteria of the affiliating University the appropriate numbers were filled in the DVV Excel sheet.

HEI will like to submit that in the matrix 3.1.1. the list of PG and PHD guides has to be included and according the number s higher whereas in the matrix 2.4.2 pertains to the Ph.D. guides. Since the guidelines of the affiliating university are different for the PG and Ph.D. guides as such the differences has arisen.

HEI has verified the eligibility criteria for recognition as Ph.D. guides and PG guide by the affiliating university and has put up the following claims and supporting evidence for the number of faculty eligible as Ph.D. guides and number of faculty eligible for PG guide year wise for the last five years.

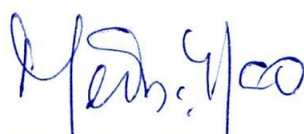

- The HEI is resubmitting the reconciled Institutional data in the NAAC prescribed data template in excel format the number of eligible Ph.D. and PG guides year wise for the past five years as
