

Medical Graduate attributes

1. Provide curative care at primary, secondary, tertiary care centers and base community level
2. Demonstrate knowledge about promotive and preventive care with reference to immunization, nutrition, lifestyle and health screening.
3. Show communication skills to interact with patients, colleagues, community and provide health education.
4. Demonstrate proficiency in self-directed and lifelong learning to meet the changing global needs.
5. Integrate ethics and professionalism into clinical practice providing quality care with compassion.
6. Demonstrate the spirit of enquiry and problem solving abilities through research.

Kedha. Rao
PRINCIPAL AND DEAN
M.S. Ramaiah Medical College
& Teaching Hospital
Bangalore - 560 054.