

World breast feeding week celebration 2021

World breast feeding week celebration 2021 @ Ramaiah Medical College by dept of Pediatrics in association with dept of Obg and Nursing

One week of theme based activities included advanced seminars, health education to Antenatal mothers, lactation assistance. Undergraduate and post graduate and Nursing training. Preparation and distribution of complementary feeds

Also included fun filled education activities like Essay and painting competition, Role play, public awareness through media One of the imp activity where every pediatrician , obstetrician and Nursing fraternity involves completely to bring awareness on exclusive breast feeding as part of social responsibility.

